

Recognition of Prior Learning

International Students

Source of Obligation Standard 2.3 of the National Code requires the School to have and implement a documented policy and process for assessing and recording recognition of prior learning (RPL), and granting and recording course credit, if the School intends to assess or grant course credit.

The School's decision to assess RPL or grant course credit must preserve the integrity of the award to which it applies and comply with the requirements of the educational framework of the course.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) RPL is an assessment process that involves an assessment of an International student's prior learning, including formal, informal and non-formal learning, to determine the learning outcome of an individual.

St John's Grammar School's Policy It is the School's policy that we do not assess or recognise prior learning of an International student for the purposes of enrolment in a course at the School.
